

Polylino

Steps for the Polylino 60-day free trial:

Let's connect: Speak with our account manager to discuss your eligibility to participate in the trial. They will be your main contact throughout the trial.

Set-up: Create your Polylino accounts. The login information will be sent to you via email.

Login: Once your login is available, click here to download a poster to be put up in your institution and emailed to all staff members so that everyone has access to the Polylino login details.

Staff training: Your staff will have access to training and ideas on how to incorporate Polylino in their lesson plans and storytime.

After 30 days: We will inquire as to how you are finding Polylino. We can answer any questions you may have about the service.

After 50 days: Our account manager will discuss the impact that Polylino has had on the children and staff in your municipality.

After 60 days: The last step of the trial - sign up to use Polylino in your municipality!
