

Polylino Funding Guide

Are you trying out Polylino and curious about the next steps?
Getting Polylino into your classroom can be easy!

Parent Funding

At a low price per student, many teachers and schools choose to ask the parents to support this resource for their classroom. We have materials to help you ask your parents to pay for Polylino and show them the value it will add to your students!

Government Funding

Our team stays up to date on many grants and funding opportunities. Check in with your Polylino representative to see what funding opportunities are currently in your area!

School Funding

If you'd like to bring Polylino to your principal, school board, or director and show them why you should have Polylino in your classroom, we are here to help. Our team will meet directly with your decision makers and provide you with resources to introduce them to Polylino!
